Immanuel BAPTIST CHURCH

SERMON TOPIC:
God's Coming Kingdom

SERMON SUMMARY

This week's sermon focuses on God's Coming Kingdom and the millennial reign of Christ, as described in Revelation 20. Pastor Clark explains how the thousand-year reign will be a preview or 'trailer' of what eternity will be like in the new heaven and new earth. During this period, Satan will be bound, and Christ will rule from Jerusalem, bringing unprecedented peace, prosperity, and purity to Earth.

1. The millennium will be a time of unprecedented peace, prosperity, and purity on Earth
2. Believers will reign with Christ during this thousand-year period
3. Satan will be bound during the millennium but released for one final rebellion
   The final judgment will determine eternal destinies based on whether names are written in the Book of Life
5. Only through faith in Christ can we ensure our names are written in the Book of Life

KEY VERSES

- Revelation 20:1-6
- Isaiah 11:6
- Psalm 72:7
- Isaiah 35:5-6

QUESTIONS

What does it mean that the millennium is like a 'movie trailer' for eternity?
- How does knowing about the future kingdom of God affect how you live today?
- What aspects of the millennial reign are you most looking forward to and why?
- How does the knowledge that Satan will be bound for 1000 years impact your view of evil in the present world?
- What does it mean to you personally that believers will reign with Christ during the millennium?
- How does the promise of no more sickness or death in the millennium encourage you in your current struggles?
  Why do you think God allows Satan one final rebellion after the thousand years?
- How should the reality of final judgment influence how we share the gospel with others?

LIFE APPLICATION

This week, identify one area of your life where you struggle to trust God's future promises. Write down specific ways you can live today in light of the coming kingdom, whether through sharing your faith, serving others, or living with eternal perspective.
